PROGRAM

SRV Ideas in Practice - explore how a range of SRV ideas have made significant differences in people's lives

The SRV Radar: understanding devaluation & its impacts - hear how understanding what people are up against is foundational to using SRV

Using SRV in Complex Contexts - hear how individuals have used SRV in situations that have many challenges, resulting in better lives with/for people

Working Together: The Australian SRV Community - collaborate with others to co-create practical ideas and relationships

All in - sustaining SRV efforts - hear why and how people continue to use SRV despite how difficult it can be

CELEBRATORY DRINKS & DINNER - FRIDAY

Continue the conversations over drinks and then dinner on Friday evening

- Carvery Buffet
- Quizzes
- Celebrating the Community

SPEAKERS

Over 30 speakers, in a range of roles: family members, people with disability, workers, managers, advocates, refugees, people with lived experience of mental health issues

Experienced in applying SRV: such as in schools, people's own homes, residential environments, behaviour support, with older people, advocacy.

Voices of people who have experienced devaluation

ABOUT ASRVA

ASRVA is led by a voluntary Board of people very experienced with SRV in their personal and work lives. ASRVA is an unfunded, non-profit company, and exists to safeguard SRV in Australia.
