9-5, Fri & Sat, 27-28 March, 2020

Dinner Fri 6:30, 27 March

- ◇ Come, be inspired and enthused about the relevance of SRV in the 2020s
- ◇ Take time for reflection and critical thinking
- ◇ Do collaborative work with others who are applying SRV
- ◇ Engage with current examples of SRV in use
- ◇ Be part of a Community of Practice through a mixture of speakers, discussion, and activities.

We are delighted to partner with Values in Action Association (ViAA), the Brisbane-based SRV group, who is responsible for all of the administrative arrangements - viaainc@gmail.com

Conference themes

- ◇ SRV ideas in practice
- ◇ Understanding devaluation and its impacts
 - ◇ Tools from SRV
- ◇ Engagement through a community of practice
 - ◇ Using SRV in complex contexts
 - ◇ Sticking at it: using SRV over time
 - ◇ Keeping SRV alive

Speakers

The guest speakers come from across Australia.

All have experience in using SRV and bring a range of backgrounds, such as involvement with people with disabilities, older people, people with mental health issues, refugees and asylum seekers.

Their involvement is in a range of contexts: integrated and congregated settings; home, school and relationships; personal and social advocacy; small and large systems.

Some people will give first person accounts.

All bring an interest in using SRV, a humility and a willingness to share.

The Conference Committee will email speaker names and post on the website: <http://www.asrva.org.au/2020-australian-srv-gathering.html>
